Dear Shreshth Singh

Offer of employment

Following our recent discussions, I am pleased to offer you employment with the Company on the terms set out in this Agreement.

Defined terms are capitalised throughout, with the meanings set out in either the Heads of Terms or in the Definitions section below.

1. Term and Commencement Date

- 1.1 The Term is as per the Heads of Terms.
- 1.2 Your employment under this Agreement will begin on the Commencement Date. Your date of continuous service is in the Heads of Terms.

2. Trial Period

- 2.1 The first 3 months of your Flexi working arrangement under this Agreement shall be a trial period. During this period, we will assess the suitability of any Flexi working arrangement. If in the reasonable opinion of your People Leader the arrangement is not suitable, we may vary your Flexi working arrangement. If the trial period is completed successfully, your Flexi working arrangement as set out in this Agreement will form part of your terms and conditions of employment.

3. Conditions

- 3.1 This offer is subject to:
 - (A) you satisfying the Company's pre-employment and ongoing verification and screening checks (including criminal record and adverse media checks where permitted by law) and providing references that are satisfactory to the Company;
 - (B) you holding (and evidencing) all qualifications, accreditations, and certifications necessary for you to carry out your role;
 - (C) you being free from any obligations owed to a third party which might prevent you from starting work on the Commencement Date or from properly performing the duties of your position, including without limitation non-competition or non-solicitation obligations;
 - (D) all and any necessary regulatory approvals and requirements for your role having been received and remaining in force (including, if relevant to your role, the Company being satisfied of your fitness and propriety); and
 - (E) the Company's receipt prior to the Commencement Date of satisfactory original evidence of your right to enter, work and reside in any relevant jurisdiction(s) and such right to work and residence remaining valid.

- 3.2 If any of the conditions set out in this clause are not satisfied prior to the Commencement Date, the Company reserves the right to withdraw this offer and this Agreement will have no legal effect. If any of the conditions set out in this clause cease to be satisfied at any time during your employment, the Company may terminate your employment with immediate effect and without notice or pay in lieu.

4. Role and Duties

- 4.1 Your role, business function and People Leader are set out in the Heads of Terms.
- 4.2 You agree to carry out the full requirements of this role and any additional or alternative tasks or work as may from time to time reasonably be required of you (including duties which might not form part of your usual role).
- 4.3 You will devote the whole of your working time, attention and abilities to the Company (or any other Group Company, if required) and use your best endeavours to promote and protect the general interests, welfare and reputation of the Company, the Group and any Group Company.
- 4.4 You will faithfully and diligently perform such duties as may from time to time be assigned to you and comply with all lawful and reasonable directions issued to you by the Company.
- 4.5 During your employment, you will not, without our prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld), carry on or be engaged, concerned or interested directly or indirectly (whether alone or on your own behalf or on behalf of or in association or conjunction with any other person or entity), in any capacity, in any trade, business or occupation (whether paid or unpaid) other than the Company other than as a holder of an investment by way of shares or other securities of not more than 5% of the total issued share capital of any company which does not compete with the Bank, the Group or any Group Company, whether or not it is listed or dealt in on a recognised stock exchange.
- 4.6 You agree that you will promptly disclose to your People Leader any information which comes into your possession which may adversely affect the Company, the Group or any Group Company, including if you are investigated or, arrested or charged by any regulatory or law enforcement agencies agency or charged become aware of any claim potentially impacting the Company, the Group or any Group Company in any court of competent jurisdiction or other forum. You will also promptly disclose all circumstances in respect of which there is, or may be, a conflict of interest between you and the Company or any Group Company or any material breach or default of your obligations under this Agreement.

5. Salary

- 5.1 Your commencing TEC is set out in the Heads of Terms under salary. This will be subject to appropriate tax and other statutory deductions, payable monthly in arrears by equal instalments and will be deemed to accrue from day to day.
- 5.2 Salaries are generally reviewed annually. You have no automatic entitlement to an increase in salary on such review. There will be no salary review after you or we have given notice of termination of your employment.

6. Place of work

- 6.1 Your usual place(s) of work is (or are) set out in the Heads of Terms.
- 6.2 You agree that you will attend your Designated Office (or any other designated place, such as a client's offices or another Company office) on reasonable notice if required by your People Leader for specific events, meetings, training or as otherwise considered necessary for the proper performance of your duties. You may be required to travel both inside and outside the usual workplace country on business.

- 6.3 You are not permitted to work outside your country of employment (or tax jurisdiction) without first having made a Request to Work Abroad application which has been approved by the Company's International Mobility team.
- 6.4 The Company reserves the right to require you to work at another Group office, or to change your place of work to any other location either temporarily or permanently as the business may reasonably require or as required for regulatory reasons.
- 6.5 The Company reserves the right to transfer, second and/or assign you to work for another Group Company or another department, division, section or branch of the Company, including those not in existence at the time of signing this Agreement, on a temporary or permanent basis, as it may reasonably require or as required for regulatory reasons.
- 6.6 If you work remotely, you are required to inform us as soon as possible if you plan to change your remote working address. You confirm that you are not in breach of any mortgage, rental agreement, insurance policy or other agreement by working from home.

7. Working Hours

- 7.1 Your working hours are set out in the Heads of Terms. In addition, you are required to work any additional hours which are necessary to carry out your duties properly.

8. Discretionary variable compensation

- 8.1 You may be eligible to participate in the discretionary incentive arrangements the Group has in place from time to time (your "Variable Compensation").
- 8.2 If applicable, your annual Variable Compensation target and the applicable performance year are set out in the Heads of Terms. Any target is for indicative purposes only.
- 8.3 Any award of Your Variable Compensation is entirely discretionary and the actual quantum of an award may vary significantly depending will depend on a number of factors including but not limited to your performance, the performance of your team, the business and the Group and your adherence to the Group's valued behaviours and risk, control and conduct expectations. Any award of Variable Compensation variable compensation will be subject to the Variable Compensation Policy and Standard (including any deferral mechanism in cash or share-based form if applicable) and any applicable plan rules as amended from time to time. The Group retains absolute discretion as to the amount of Variable Compensation awarded and reserves the right to make no award. Any award is not an indication of what you may receive in any other year.
- 8.4 Any award of Variable Compensation is subject to any appropriate tax and other statutory deductions. Variable Compensation is normally awarded in March following the performance year to which it relates, although this may vary according to the type of Variable Compensation or at the Bank's discretion. With respect to your first year of employment, any award made will be pro-rated based on the Commencement Date, although you will not be eligible for an award if your Commencement Date falls on or after 1 October.
- 8.5 Except as expressly provided in any applicable plan rules, any award of Variable Compensation in this clause is also subject to:
 - (A) you being in employment on the date that any award is paid or (in the case of deferred variable compensation) granted; and

- (B) neither party having given notice to terminate your employment on the date that the award would have been paid or (in the case of deferred variable compensation) granted.

8.6 If applicable, details of your eligibility for additional incentive or buy out awards are contained in the Appendix to this Agreement

8.7 You will be responsible for any tax liabilities arising from any award in excess of any deductions at source. All awards are non-pensionable.

9. Employee share plans

9.1 You may become eligible for consideration for participation in one of the Group's employee share plans in place from time to time. The level of your participation (if any) is at the sole discretion of the Group and if you receive a grant or award under a plan in any one year, this will not give rise to a contractual entitlement to a grant or award in future years.

9.2 Any participation in any share plan and your participation (if any) will always be subject to the relevant share plan rules from time to time.

10. Expenses

10.1 The Company will reimburse all reasonable expenses properly and necessarily incurred by you in the course of your employment, subject to evidence of proof of expenditure and People Leader approval and as governed by group or local country guidelines as applicable. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company will not reimburse:

- (A) travel expenses between your home address, your Designated Office and any other of your usual places of work; and/or
- (B) any utility or office equipment expenses incurred as a result of your homeworking arrangement or otherwise.

11. Benefits

11.1 You will be eligible to receive the following benefits from the Commencement Date, subject to the terms of the relevant scheme, and the rules or insurance policy of the relevant insurance provider, in each case as amended from time to time:

- (A) life assurance; and
- (B) medical insurance.

11.2 We reserve the right to amend the rules of any such scheme and/or to withdraw any (or all) such benefits, without providing any replacement (subject to local law). Accordingly, such benefits are non-contractual. If the insurer refuses to provide cover to you, the Company will not be liable to provide such benefits itself or compensation in lieu.

11.3 If local law provides greater or additional statutory benefits than conferred by this clause, local law will prevail. You are entitled to retiral benefits in accordance with applicable laws in India. Please refer to policies on the Company's online HR management system for details on benefits that may be applicable to you.

12. Annual leave

12.1 In addition to public holidays, your number of paid annual leave days per holiday year is set out in the Heads of Terms. This is inclusive of your statutory annual leave days. Our holiday year starts on 1 January and finishes on 31 December each year. In the year/s your employment under this Agreement commences and terminates, your annual leave entitlement will be pro-rated according to your Commencement Date and/or Termination Date, as applicable.

12.2 In relation to annual leave:

- (A) all annual leave must be approved in advance by your People Leader;
- (B) you must comply with the Company's minimum standards relating to annual leave entitlements, including the Group policy on block leave, which may be amended from time to time;
- (C) carry forward of leave is governed by local country leave guidelines;
- (D) the Company may require you to take annual leave entitlement during any period of notice of termination of employment given by the Company or by you (and you will be deemed to take any outstanding leave during any period of garden leave);
- (E) you will be entitled to a payment in lieu of annual leave which has accrued but is outstanding as at the Termination Date;
- (F) you are required to make a payment to us in lieu of any annual leave which you have taken in excess of your accrued annual leave entitlement as at the Termination Date; and
- (G) payments in lieu of annual leave are calculated in line with the laws applicable to where your Designated Office is located.

If local law provides a greater benefit than conferred by this clause, local law will prevail.

13. Absence (including sickness absence)

13.1 If you will be absent from work you must tell your People Leader (including the general reason why) by telephone or email on the first day of such absence, whenever possible.

13.2 The Company may require you to provide your People Leader with a medical certificate covering the period of absence in line with local country sickness absence policies, procedures or standards. On your return you must record your absence through the Company's online HR management system.

13.3 We will pay you sick pay in accordance with applicable law and company policy. Any pay in excess of this will be at the Company's absolute discretion.

13.4 On request, we may require you to undergo a medical examination by a doctor nominated by us, at our expense, at any time and for any reason during your employment. You agree to give the Company authority to have access to any report(s) prepared as a result of such examination.

14. Health & Safety

- 14.1 You agree to comply with all health and safety guidelines and training and complete any health and safety checklists which we may issue from time to time. This may include a virtual workstation assessment (and any periodical reviews) which you will arrange with the relevant team if it is recommended that you do so.

15. Policies, Standards, and procedures

- 15.1 You are required to comply with all prevailing Company and Group policies, Standards and procedures (including the Group Code of Conduct and Ethics) as may be amended from time to time. You will also be required to comply with such other policies, Standards procedures and other regulatory requirements as the Company may from time to time notify to you.
- 15.2 The policies, Standards and procedures referred to in this clause are not contractual in nature unless otherwise expressly stated. The Company reserves the right, at its absolute discretion, to amend or withdraw any such policies, Standards and procedures.
- 15.3 In the event of any inconsistency between the terms of this Agreement and any of the Company's policies, Standards or procedures, the terms of this Agreement will prevail.

16. Regulatory requirements

- 16.1 You agree that you will comply with all relevant laws, regulations and rules of any applicable regulator (including the Financial Conduct Authority and Prudential Regulation Authority).
- 16.2 If applicable to your role, you warrant that:
- (A) you will be aware of, and fully compliant with, your obligations in relation to any Certified Person, Senior Manager or other regulated or licensed functions which you perform;
 - (A) you meet the required standards of fitness and propriety for your function; and
 - (B) you have notified the Company of any matter which is or could be relevant to the Company's and/or any other Group Company's and/or any applicable regulator's assessment of your fitness and propriety. This is a continuing duty during your employment; if you are in doubt as to the relevance of any such information, you should discuss this with the Company without any undue delay.
- 16.3 If applicable to your role, your continued employment is conditional upon the Company and/or any other Group Company and/or any applicable regulator being satisfied that you continue to meet any required standards of fitness and propriety for your function. The Company reserves the right to amend your duties, or to terminate your employment with immediate effect, in the event of any breach of the above warranties or failure to meet any of the conditions set out in this clause.

17. Intellectual property

- 17.1 Subject to applicable laws, if at any time in the course of, or in connection with, your employment with us, you make or discover or participate in the making or discovery of any Intellectual Property directly or indirectly relating to or capable of being used in the business carried on by the Company or by any other Group Company, you will immediately disclose in writing to the Company full details of the Intellectual Property and the Intellectual Property will be the absolute property of the Company and you hereby waive any moral rights you may have in such Intellectual Property. You hereby waive any moral rights in to which you are now or may at any future time be entitled, including (but without limitation) the right to be identified, the right of integrity and the right against false attribution, and agree not to institute, support, maintain or permit any action or claim to the effect that any treatment, exploitation or use of such work or other materials, infringes any moral rights you may have in such Intellectual Property.

- 17.2 At our request and expense, you will give and supply all such information, data, drawings and assistance as may be necessary or in our opinion desirable to enable us to exploit the Intellectual Property to the best advantage (as decided by the Company), and you will promptly execute all documents and do all things which may be necessary or in our opinion desirable for obtaining patent or other protection for the Intellectual Property in such parts of the world as may be specified by us and for vesting the same in us or as we may direct.
- 17.3 Where any Intellectual Property rights falling within this clause have been created jointly by you and any other person or persons, you shall, without prejudice to your obligations under this clause, use your best endeavours to procure that the other person or persons assign(s) to the Company as applicable yours or their interest in such rights.
- 17.4 You shall immediately on the Termination Date deliver to the Company all materials in your possession or in your control relating to any Intellectual Property rights belonging to the Company or third-party Intellectual Property licensed to the Company or member of the Group.
- 17.5 In this clause:

- (A) "Intellectual Property" means all intellectual and industrial property rights including, without limitation, all patents, rights to Inventions and Confidential Information, trademarks, rights in get-up, rights in goodwill or to sue for passing off, rights in trade names, websites, internet domain names, logos, art work, slogans, know-how, technical information, trade secrets, processes, rights in designs (whether or not registered or registrable), utility models, copyright (including rights in computer software and related preparatory and design materials), semiconductor topography rights, database rights and all rights or forms of protection of a similar nature or having equivalent effect anywhere in the world, in each case whether registered or unregistered and including all applications (or rights to apply) for, and renewals or extensions of, such rights; and
- (B) "Invention" means any invention idea, discovery, development, improvement or innovation, whether or not patentable and whether or not patent protection has been applied for or granted, and whether or not recorded in any medium.

- 17.6 On termination of your employment, the terms of this clause shall remain in full force and effect.

18. Confidentiality

- 18.1 You will not at any time, either during or after the termination of your employment:
- A. use, permit the use of, disclose or communicate to any person whatsoever, including through any failure to exercise all due care and diligence which causes or permits any unauthorised disclosure of, any Confidential Information; or.
 - B. supply the names or addresses of any clients, customers or agents of the Company or any other Group Company to any person except in the proper course of the business of the Company or any other Group Company or as authorised in writing by the Company or as ordered by a Court of competent jurisdiction and/or a regulator.

18.2 You are responsible for ensuring the security of Confidential Information at all times, including in your home or any other remote working environment, if applicable. In particular, you undertake to:

- lock your computer terminal whenever it is left unattended;
- ensure any wireless network used is secure;
- keep all Company papers containing Confidential Information secure when not in use; and
- comply with the Group Information Security and Cyber Security Policy from time to time in force.

18.3 Nothing in this clause shall preclude you from making disclosures:

- (A) under the Group Speaking Up Programme (including to an appropriate external authority or a regulator). This includes protected disclosures about topics previously disclosed to another recipient;
- (B) to the police or other law enforcement agencies and/or co-operating with and making disclosures to the court, the police or other law enforcement agencies in the course of a criminal investigation or prosecution;
- (C) on a confidential basis for the purpose of representing yourself at any investigation or proceedings brought by an appropriate regulator or professional body in relation to matters arising from your employment;
- (D) if compelled or required by an order of, or to give evidence to, a court or tribunal of competent jurisdiction;
- (E) on a confidential basis to:
 - (1) your legal advisers in the context of seeking legal advice;
 - (2) your professional advisers in the context of seeking medical advice and/or therapy; and/or
 - (3) your professional advisers in the context of seeking tax advice, provided that such advisers agree to respect the confidential nature of that information including in accordance with their professional obligations;

- (F) to an appropriate tax authority; or
- (G) as otherwise required by law.

On termination of your employment, the terms of this clause shall remain in full force and effect.

19. Media

19.1 You shall at all times comply with the Group social media guidance and related policies, copies of which are available on the Group's intranet. You must not at any time either during or after the termination of your employment make or release any statement (whether written or verbal) to any representative of television, radio, film, or other media and you will not write or comment on any article for the press or otherwise for publication on any matter connected with or relating to the Company or any other Group Company or its business without first obtaining the prior written approval of Corporate Affairs.

- 19.2 Failure to comply with the relevant Standards, framework and policies under this clause may be dealt with under the Group Disciplinary Standard and, in serious cases, may be treated as gross misconduct leading to dismissal.

20. Deductions

- 20.1 To the extent permitted by law, you consent to the Company deducting from your remuneration any sums due from you to the Company including, without limitation, any overpayments, loans or advances made to you by the Company as part of your employment and any overpayments in respect of annual leave taken in excess of your entitlement.

21. Suspension or garden leave

- 21.1 We may, at any time during your employment and in our absolute discretion require you:

- (A) not to perform all or any of your duties under this Agreement;
- (B) not to enter any premises of the Company or any other Group Company;
- (C) to return on request any Company or Group property, including but not limited to any laptop, mobile devices and/or security pass and all documents and other materials (including copies) belonging to the Company or Group containing Confidential Information;
- (D) not to contact any client, supplier, employee, contractor, consultant or partner of the Company, unless you have specific prior approval from your People Leader;
- (E) to immediately inform your People Leader in the event that any client, supplier, employee, consultant or partner of the Company seeks to contact you; and/or
- (F) to ensure that the Company has your contact details and to remain contactable at all times during normal business hours.

- 21.2 During any period of suspension or garden leave, you will continue to be entitled to receive your base salary and contractual benefits (unless and until your employment is terminated) and you remain an employee of the Company such that all your express and implied obligations under this Agreement will continue.

22. Termination

22.1 Notice

Subject to the remainder of this clause, your employment may be terminated by either party by giving notice as set out in the Heads of Terms.

22.2 Payment in lieu of notice

Once notice has been given by either party, the Company may terminate your employment with immediate effect by notifying you that we are exercising our right under this clause and that we will make a payment in lieu of notice for the whole or part of your notice period, as applicable. Payment in lieu of notice shall be equal to TEC less Retirals (Employer Provident Fund and Employer Gratuity) only which you would have been entitled to receive during any unexpired part of your notice period (but not any other benefits), less any appropriate deductions.

22.3 Termination without notice

We may terminate your employment without notice, and without payment or compensation in lieu of notice, if:

- (A) you are found to have committed gross misconduct or you commit any serious or repeated breach of your obligations under this Agreement (including any of the examples of gross misconduct given in our Group Disciplinary Standard as amended from time to time);
- (B) you are in our reasonable opinion negligent and/or incompetent in the performance of your duties, you fail to acquire or cease to hold any professional or regulatory qualification, certification or permission which is necessary for you to carry out your duties under this Agreement;
- (C) you are charged with and/or convicted of a criminal offence, other than an offence which in our sole discretion does not affect your position or suitability as an employee of the Company;
- (D) you, in our reasonable opinion, bring or risk bringing the name or reputation of the Company or any other Group Company into disrepute or you prejudice the interests or business of the Company or any other Group Company; and/or
- (E) you have a bankruptcy order made against you or if you make any arrangement or composition with your creditors.

22.4 Termination on ground of ill-health

If you are unable to perform your duties properly due to any illness, accident or any physical or mental disability for a period totalling six (6) months in any period of 12 consecutive calendar months, the Company may terminate your employment by giving notice as set out in the Head of Terms.

22.5 Obligations on termination

Upon request by the Company at any time and in any event upon termination of your employment for whatever reason, you will:

- (A) immediately return to us any remaining property of the Company and/or of any other Group Company (including Confidential Information) which may be in your possession, power, custody or under your control, and if requested, you will provide us with a signed statement confirming that you have complied with this clause;
- (B) provide us with all passwords and information necessary to access any Company systems and devices which you have used in the course of your employment and ensure all powers of attorney and/or delegations of authority are handed over as appropriate;
- (C) permanently and irretrievably delete any information relating to the business of the Group that is stored on any personal computer, mobile device or storage media or otherwise in any electronic form and which is in your possession, custody or control;
- (D) without compensation, resign from all offices held by you in any Group Company and transfer to the Company or any relevant Group Company without payment or as the Company may direct any qualifying shares held by you as nominee for the Company or any relevant Group Company;

- (E) comply with the handover procedures contained in the Group Handover Standard from time to time in force if applicable and with any other handover requirements directed by your People Leader; and
- (F) immediately repay all outstanding debts or loans due to any Group Company which arise as a result of your employment

22.6 The Company's retirement age is 60. The details regarding the Company's procedure on retirement are available from the Company's Human Resources department.

22.7 It is expressly clarified that the period of service rendered by you with any overseas Group Company (in case of any international assignments) would not be considered for the purposes of determining Retirals (including Employer Gratuity) from the Company. Such period of service with any overseas Group Company will be treated as an absolute break-in-service with the Company, for the duration of which, you will be entitled to receive only such remuneration as applicable to you from the relevant overseas Group Company, in accordance with its policies and laws of the relevant jurisdiction where you render services from. By signing below, you expressly waive any claims (either directly or indirectly) from the Company in relation to benefits, wages, salaries, emoluments, and other monetary entitlements of any kind, including but not limited to any Retirals, for such duration of service with any overseas Group Company.

23. Ongoing assistance

23.1 During your employment and at any time after the termination of your employment, you agree to co-operate with any reasonable request for assistance made by the Company or any other Group Company or its or their advisers in relation to any internal investigation or review or other internal enquiry or any investigation or other enquiry by any regulatory authorities, clearing houses and exchanges, professional bodies, or government bodies or agencies in relation to the Company or any other Group Company or any dispute (including any litigation) brought by or against the Company or any other Group Company in any case relating (in whole or in part) to matters with which you are or were involved or in respect of which you may have had knowledge during your employment with the Company. This includes a dispute before any foreign tribunal, court, arbitral panel, and any enquiry or investigation conducted in any country by any foreign regulatory authorities, clearing houses and exchanges, professional bodies, or government bodies or agencies. You further undertake to promptly inform the Company of any dispute/litigation which you are involved in that may have an impact on its or any other Group Company's business and/or reputation.

24. Data privacy

24.1 We will collect and process information relating to you in accordance applicable local laws and the applicable local Employee Privacy Notice, the current version of which is attached to this Agreement but which we may amend from time to time.

24.2 You shall comply with the Group Privacy Standard and the Group Code of Conduct and Ethics from time to time in force when handling and retaining personal data in the course of your employment including personal data relating to any employee, worker, contractor, customer, client, supplier or agent of ours.

25. Monitoring

25.1 In order to carry out our legal obligations as an employer (such as ensuring compliance with our IT-related policies), conducting internal audits and investigations and/or for other business reasons, we may (overtly or covertly) monitor:

- (A) telephone, email, voicemail, internet use, chat discussions and any other communications or material on the Company's or Group's networks or on your Company or Group laptop or mobile device;
- (B) information held in Company or Group mobile device applications, even if held on your personal mobile devices;
- (C) CCTV or your security card use in or around the Company's premises.

You also agree to allowing the Company to access your personal mobile or other personal device to the extent that doing so is necessary for any Company or Group investigation or to ensure there is no Confidential Information stored on such a device. Monitoring is only carried out to the extent permitted or as required by law.

26. Other

26.1 Entire Agreement

This Agreement sets out the entire agreement between the parties and replaces and supersedes any existing agreement (written, verbal or otherwise) made between you and us or any other Group Company in relation to your employment which are deemed to have been terminated by mutual agreement with effect from the date on which your employment under this Agreement begins.

You warrant and agree that you are not entering into this Agreement in reliance on any representation or warranty not expressly set out in this Agreement.

26.2 Obligations to third parties

You warrant that, in entering into this Agreement and performing your obligations under it, you will not be in breach either directly or indirectly of any court order and/or the express or implied terms of any contract or obligation which is binding on you.

26.3 Variation

The Company reserves the right to make reasonable changes to these and any other agreed terms and conditions of employment. Minor changes may be made from time to time and will be effected by a general notice to employees.

26.4 Governing law and jurisdiction

Your terms and conditions of employment and any non-contractual obligations arising from your employment will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law set out in the Heads of Terms.

In relation to any legal action or proceedings arising out of or in connection with your employment, the Company and you irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts set out in the Heads of Terms.

The parties agree that the provisions of this Agreement are separate and divisible and if any clause or provision of this Agreement is held to be completely or partially invalid or unenforceable, all other clauses or parts thereof contained in this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected thereby.

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which, when executed, shall be an original, and all the counterparts together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

SC PRIVACY NOTICE (India) Employees, Non-Employed Workers and other Colleagues

1 Protecting your personal data

1.1 Your personal data is important to us, and we want to make sure you know how we use and protect it. Personal data (sometimes also known as personal information) is any information that relates to a person or who is identifiable by or in relation to such information, either directly or indirectly or in combination with other information. In this privacy notice, we'll explain how we collect, share, and process your personal data. We'll also tell you about your rights and how you can exercise them. From time to time, we may also provide you with additional privacy information in a separate notice.

1.2 For the purposes of your employment or your engagement with us, we provide you with access to various software applications and online services. For example, access to surveys, training materials and communication tools. Refer to supplementary privacy information available on such Standard Chartered Group applications that describe how your personal data is collected, used, and protected when using such Standard Chartered Group applications and online services.

1.3 In this privacy notice, "we", "us" or "our", refers to the Standard Chartered Group branch, subsidiary or legal entity operating under Standard Chartered PLC, that has either employed you under a contract of employment or has engaged you as a non-employed worker or director under a contract for service, and is the organisation or controller that is responsible for your personal data collected and used under this privacy notice.

1.4 This privacy notice describes how we collect and process personal data about you. Depending on your role or engagement with us either:

- a. during your employment with us. Certain sections of this privacy notice may also apply to former employees; or
- b. following the termination of your employment with us; or
- c. during your engagement with us under a contract for service as a Non-Employed Worker ("NEW") for example, agency workers or third-party vendor personnel or consultants; or
- d. during your engagement with us under a contract of service as a non-executive director collectively referred to as "Colleagues"

1.5. Standard Chartered Group means each of, or collectively, Standard Chartered PLC, its subsidiaries, and affiliates, including each branch or representative office. Please refer to the 'How to get in touch' section of this privacy notice for details of the relevant Standard Chartered Group member providing this privacy notice.

1.6 Some of our affiliates' websites have their own brand identity and their own separate privacy notices to provide relevant information for specific products and services they provide. You should refer to the relevant privacy notices as directed by those affiliates in relation to how they use your personal data. This privacy notice does not apply to third-party websites where our online advertisements are displayed or to linked third-party websites we do not operate or control. These websites should have their own privacy notices, which you can read to understand how they collect and process your personal data and your rights.

1.7 We will only process your personal data in accordance with this privacy notice unless otherwise required by applicable law. We will take steps to ensure that the personal data that we collect about you is adequate, relevant, not excessive, and processed for limited purposes.

1.8 We do not sell or share your personal information for marketing purpose to third parties. Your personal information is only used as necessary and as reasonably expected as part of our employment relationship with you.

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION (D&I) of COLLEAGUES

1.9 We are committed to providing equal opportunities and fair treatment in employment and internal recruitment. We want to further support the creation of an environment where everyone with the capability to excel can do so and are committed to equal opportunities and fair treatment in our recruitment and employment practices. We aspire to be the best place to work, the best place to bank and to build prosperous communities.

1.10 At Standard Chartered, our purpose is to drive commerce and prosperity through our unique diversity. We know that building a culture of inclusion is a critical lever to our business success and enabling teams to unlock innovation, make better decisions, deliver our business strategy, live our valued behaviours and embody "Here for Good."

1.11 What matters to you matters to us. By sharing certain additional personal details about aspects of your identity, you will enable us to use data-led insights to build a more diverse and inclusive work environment. Such sensitive personal data collected for Diversity and Inclusion purposes (D&I Data) is treated confidentially and is only shared with authorised parties for the purposes set out in the 'Purposes of processing' and the 'Who do you share your data with?' sections below. By analysing data and understanding lived experiences, we gain greater insights and understanding of our diverse workforce. We can then take further targeted actions to improve the experience of working for the Bank. D&I Data that you may share with us are normally reviewed on an aggregated and anonymised basis. We may also review and process this data at an individual level in certain instances to better assess and address our current level of diversity as well as ensuring diverse talent pools and addressing underrepresentation.

1.12 We'll update this privacy notice from time to time. You can find the current version date listed at the end of this privacy notice. If you have any questions or concerns about your personal data, please don't hesitate to get in touch (you can find our details under 'How to get in touch' below).

2 What types of personal data do we collect?

2.1 For the purposes of this Privacy Notice, personal data (including Sensitive/Special Category Personal Data) means any information about an identifiable individual. This includes details of offences or alleged offences or convictions
- Socio-economic background information - information about your socio-economic status based on your personal and family history

2.3 Where we have a legitimate need to process special categories of personal data or sensitive personal data for purposes not identified above, we will only do so only after providing you with notice and, if required by law, obtaining your prior, express consent.

2.4 We will always treat special categories of personal data and sensitive personal data as confidential, and we will only share such data internally where there is a specific and legitimate purpose for sharing the data. As set out below, we have implemented appropriate physical, technical, and organisational security measures designed to secure your personal data against accidental loss and unauthorised access, use, alteration, or disclosure.

2.5 We usually get your personal data directly from you, but we may also obtain your personal data from other sources as necessary, including from:

- People you know – such as:
 - your previous employers (only if you voluntarily provide us with reference letters)
 - recruitment agencies
- Businesses and other organisations – such as:
 - your employer and/or company, business, or organisation you represent or is related to you (for NEWs)
 - credit reference and fraud prevention agencies
 - criminal records bureau

2.6 Childrens' Data

We may collect and process the data belonging to children when you voluntarily provide them for the purpose of medical insurance benefits, or as applicable law otherwise permits. We will always treat childrens' data as confidential, and we will only share such data internally / third-party service providers where there is a specific and legitimate purpose for sharing the data. As set out below, we have implemented appropriate physical, technical, and organisational security measures designed to secure your personal data against accidental loss and unauthorised access, use, alteration, or disclosure.

3 Why do we collect your personal data?

3.1 We collect your personal data so that we can manage employee records and to operate our business.

3.2 We collect personal data for D&I purposes, because we are committed to providing equal opportunities and fair treatment in employment and recruitment, and to further our D&I strategy and aims (See 'Diversity and Inclusion' below). This is also an area where there are increasing legal and regulatory requirements, with government as well as regulators increasingly requesting data in relation to D&I monitoring.

- 5.11 Other third parties
 - third parties in case of a merger, acquisition or divestment: if we transfer (or plan to transfer) any part of our business or assets. If the transaction goes ahead, the interested party may use or disclose your personal information in the same way as set out in this privacy notice, and subsequently notify you of any changes they may make in terms with how they process your personal data
 - any other person under a duty of confidentiality to us, including any other members of the Standard Chartered Group, which has undertaken to keep such information confidential

6 Where do we transfer your personal data?

6.1 Your personal data may be processed, stored, shared, transferred or disclosed by us within the Standard Chartered Group or with other third parties for the purposes described in this privacy notice. We do this in order to improve and support and facilitate our processes and business operations and to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations. This may involve processing, storing, sharing, transferring or disclosing your personal data cross border to other jurisdictions, irrespective of your job location. For example, should you provide D&I Data during our recruitment process and you become an employee of Standard Chartered, relevant D&I data will be transferred to our central HR system for the purposes described above. We are committed to safeguarding your personal data during these activities by implementing appropriate technical and organisational measures and ensuring compliance with applicable data protection laws.

6.2 Where recipients of your personal data are in jurisdictions that are outside of India, and local laws may not have similar data protection laws as India, we will take all reasonable steps necessary to ensure that your personal data has an appropriate level of protection and safeguards to comply with applicable law.

7 How do we protect your personal data?

7.1 We take the privacy and security of your personal data very seriously. To protect your data, we have put in place a range of appropriate technical, physical and organisational measures to safeguard and keep your personal data confidential, for example, by using contracts with appropriate confidentiality, data protection and security terms in our arrangements with third parties. Standard Chartered Group has implemented information security data privacy policies, including incident management and reporting procedures, rules and technical measures to protect personal data and to comply with legal and regulatory requirements. We train and require Colleagues who access your personal data to comply with our data privacy and security standards.

7.2 We require our service providers, or other third parties we engage with and to whom we disclose your personal data to implement similar confidentiality, data privacy and security standards and measures when they handle, access or process your personal data.

8 How long do we keep your personal data?

For the purposes described in this privacy notice, we keep your personal data for business operational or legal reasons while you engage with us and may retain your personal data for a period of time afterwards in accordance with our Group Records Keeping Standard and as required by applicable law and regulations. We will delete, anonymise, destroy and/or stop using personal data when we no longer need it or have a legal basis to keep it.

9 What are your personal data protection rights?

9.1 We respect your personal data, and you have the following rights about how we use your information:

- Your right to access your data – you have the right to check whether we hold personal data about you, and you can ask us for a copy of such data and information on how we have used it.
- Your right to correct your data – if your personal details have changed, or you believe we have incorrect or out-of-date information about you, you can ask us to update it.
- Your right to delete your data – you can ask us to delete your personal data. However, we may need certain personal details to comply with our legal obligations and our legitimate interests to establish, exercise or defend our legal rights and to prevent fraud.
- Your right to restrict or object to processing – you can ask us to stop using your data or change how we use it. However, we may need certain personal details to comply with our legal obligations and our legitimate interests to establish, exercise or defend our legal rights and to prevent fraud.
- Your right to seek grievance redressal – you can seek redressal of your grievances, if any, in respect of any issues you may face in connection with your personal data or if you have any concerns regarding this privacy notice. You may contact the Grievance Officer (details specified in paragraph 10 of this privacy notice) in case of any grievance.
- Your right to object to automated decision making – you can ask us to review a decision made solely by automated processing if it negatively impacts you.
- Your right to data portability – you can ask us to provide your personal data to another organisation in a format that can be easily read by machines.
- Your right not to provide consent or to change or to withdraw consent – we may from time to time ask for your consent to process your personal data for certain purposes.
